

Manuel D. Ron is President & CEO of Integration Capital & Trade.

Formerly he was a Managing Director of Griffin Investment Management LLC, a subsidiary of publicly-listed UK-based Griffin Securities plc, and a co-manager of the Griffin Crossover Fund where he invested in the private debt and equity securities of public and private US and United Kingdom companies.

He was previously Chief Operating Officer of DC Asset Management where he helped launch the DC Opportunity Fund, a hedge fund investing in the private securities of public US companies.

Mr. Ron has also held various legal, operating and finance positions including Of Counsel at the international law firm of Guibord Homsy LLP and CEO of a venture capital backed technology company, Actiant, where he raised its first equity and debt rounds from US and international investors.

Mr. Ron worked in the Investment Banking division of Citigroup after his service as a US Army, Corp of Engineers airborne officer.

He has a B.A. in Economics from St. John's University, where he was a Distinguished Military Graduate, and a J.D. from the St. John's University School of Law.

Mr. Ron also earned an M.B.A. in Finance from New York University's Leonard N. Stern School of Business where he is a guest lecturer. He is admitted to practice law in the State of New York and in the federal courts of the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York. He is also admitted to the bar of the Supreme Court of the United States.

Mr. Ron is an author and speaker on private capital investment and markets as well as on entrepreneurship and innovation topics.